

EWI Insights is an online workshop series that takes place four times a year on current research topics. It targets at professionals from business, science, politics, public authorities who deal with current energy issues and are interested in cutting edge scientific findings.

The next edition of EWI Insights will take place on Monday, October 4, 2021 from 4-5 p.m. and will focus on the following topic:

Flexibility in Distribution Grids

Agenda	16:00 Start of the online workshop Welcome Dr. Johannes Wagner, Manager
	16:05 Benefits of Local Coordination Mechanisms in Electricity Systems Nils Namockel, Research Associate
	16:25 Integrating EVs - Smart Charging and Its Impact on Distribution Grids Arne Lilienkamp, Research Associate
	16:45 Q&A, Summary and Farewell
	17:00 End of the online workshop

Registration: The online workshop is free of charge. For registration, please sign up via the registration form. You will receive the zoom-in link after you have logged in.

For further questions, please contact Melanie Tillmann, Events and Committee Work, (melanie.tillmann@ewi.uni-koeln.de).