

EWI Insights is an online workshop series that takes place four times a year on current research topics. It targets at professionals from business, science, politics, public authorities who deal with current energy issues and are interested in cutting edge scientific findings.

The next edition of EWI Insights will take place on Tuesday, December 7th, 2021, from 4-5 p.m. and will focus on:

dena pilot study: Climate Neutrality 2045 - Transformation of the Consumption Sectors and the Energy System

Agenda	16:00 Start of the online workshop Welcome Max Gierkink, Manager
	16:05 Transformation of the buildings, industry, and transport sector Lena Pickert, Research Consultant
	16:25 Transformation of the Energy System Berit Hanna Czock, Research Associate 16:45 Q&A, Summary and Farewell
	17:00 End of the online workshop

Registration: The online workshop is free of charge. For registration, please sign up via the registration form. You will receive the zoom-in link after you have logged in.

For further questions, please contact Melanie Tillmann, Events and Committee Work, (melanie.tillmann@ewi.uni-koeln.de).